SPEAKERS

Josef Dvorak Country Manager of SBR Consulting

13 years into a career that has involved selling, leading sales teams and developing organisations in the US and across Europe, including recruiting, training, managing, leading and motivating 277 salespeople and leaders, Josef is passionate about helping Professional Services firms and individuals grow their sales potential. As a Sales Performance Consultant, he uses his expert knowledge and experience to work closely with his clients to ensure that they have the right habits, tools and processes to drive revenues, increase productivity and develop high performance sales cultures. Having set up the Czech branch of SBR Consulting, he specialises in winning business and designing, delivering and embedding sales and business development programmes within Professional Services and other industries.

Paul Collins Chairman of the Board of Directors of M&A firm, Equiteq.

Paul is the founder and former Chief Executive of WCI Group, a consulting firm that consistently appeared in the Sunday Times Fast-Track list and that Paul personally built up to over 400 consulting staff in less than a decade. As one of the few consulting firms to have achieved solid growth figures during the last downturn, Paul can give first-hand insights into the consulting sales process and how this should be adapted to address booming markets and markets in the grips of a downturn. Paul is the Chairman of the board of directors of Equiteq Limited and advises consulting firms on how to achieve sustainable and accelerated growth in their businesses - with enhancing the sales effectiveness of firms being an important component of his work.

Stuart Lotherington Managing Director of SBR Consulting

Stuart is one of 2 Managing Directors and has been in the firm for over 14 years. He is still very much involved with his clients having dedicated over 30 years to Sales Force Effectiveness and making millions of pounds of sales revenue for Consultancy & Professional Services firms. In 2019 he billed over $1million in sales revenue alone. He shares his expertise at conferences on Professional Service strategy and execution. In his time with SBR he has been engaged in over 250 clients in this industry sector. He has been featured in magazines such as Sales Transformation and Directors (IoD) not only for his Sales knowledge but also for his athletic prowess, having completed numerous Ironman competitions, Ultra running and cycling events. Stuart has degrees in Business Studies and Finance and has recently completed another in Psychology.

Special Guest Speaker Expert of Social Selling

We will also be joined by a social media marketing expert who focuses specifically on professional services business marketing and lead generation, recruitment marketing and social selling.

Jonathan Adams Consultant of SBR Consulting

Jonny's 10-year sales career started as a graduate. He has worked in organisational growth of sales team from 10 – 100 people and has a specialism in Inside Sales. Jonny has been the senior sales lead in his previous role that led him to be a high performer in transactional and corporate sales environments. Multiple promotions led him to manage various key geographical markets, where he was responsible for £35 million turnover per annum. Further responsibilities were, in-house training, development of on-boarding programmes and coaching plans across the business. Jonny has vast knowledge of Salesforce.com implementation and utilising sales methodology and process in combination with relevant dashboards and activity tracking.

Alan Morton Managing Director of SBR Consulting
